

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the freelance frontend developer position at your company. I have six years of experience in designing and developing responsive, user-friendly, and high-performance websites and web applications using various technologies and frameworks.

Some of my key skills and achievements include:

- Developing over 50 websites and web applications for clients in various industries using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Angular, Bootstrap, and WordPress.
- Implementing best practices for web development, such as code quality, performance optimization, accessibility, and security.
- Collaborating with designers, backend developers, project managers, and clients to deliver solutions that meet their needs and expectations.
- Creating and maintaining documentation, testing, debugging, and deploying code using Git, GitHub, CI/CD, Cloud services( AWS, Azure, etc).
- Learning new technologies and tools to keep up with the latest trends and standards in web development.

I am passionate about creating beautiful and functional web experiences that enhance user satisfaction and engagement. I am also flexible, reliable, and able to work independently or as part of a team.

I would love to join your company and contribute to your projects with my skills and expertise. I am available for an interview at your convenience and can start working immediately.

Please find attached my resume and portfolio for your review. Thank you for your consideration and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,
M Amiruddin Irsyad
